DC Earned Income Tax Credit

The District has changed the formula for determining the Earned Income Tax Credit for childless workers.

- Taxpayers with a qualifying child who claim the federal EITC may still claim a DC EITC of 40% of the federal credit. However, the formula for determining the DC EITC for childless workers has changed. Taxpayers without a qualifying child must now use the “DC Earned Income Tax Credit Worksheet for Filers Without a Qualifying Child” to determine the amount of the credit. The two worksheets have been added to the 2015 D-40EZ D-40 Booklet.
- The DC EITC must be prorated according to the time of residency for part-year residents.
District of Columbia Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) Worksheet
For Filers Without A Qualifying Child

This worksheet is for taxpayers who do not have a qualifying child for the Earned Income Credit. If you have a qualifying child DO NOT USE THIS WORKSHEET.

If your earned income or federal adjusted gross income (fed AGI) is greater than $24,040

STOP

YOU CANNOT CLAIM THIS CREDIT

Section A: General Eligibility for the DC Childless Worker EITC.

If you qualified for the federal Earned Income Credit, go directly to Section B, below. If you did not qualify for the federal Earned Income Credit, answer these questions:

1. Were you, or your spouse/registered domestic partner if married filing jointly, or married filing separately on the same return, at least age 25, but not age 65 at the end of 2015? (born after December 31, 1950, and before January 2, 1991). If your spouse died in 2015 or if you are preparing a return for someone who died in 2015, see IRS Pub. 596 before you answer. If YES continue. If NO, STOP you cannot claim the EITC.

2. Do you, and your spouse/registered domestic partner (if filing on the same tax return) have a social security number that allows you to work, or is valid for EITC purposes? (See the federal tax return instruction booklet for more information.) If YES, continue.

3. If you answer YES to any of the following questions, STOP, you are not eligible for the EITC. If you can answer NO to all the questions, go to step 4.
   a. Is the filing status on your DC return “Married Filing separately”?
   b. If you are unmarried, can you be claimed as a dependent on someone else’s 2015 tax return, or are you someone else’s qualifying child?
   c. If you are married, and you are not filing with your spouse, can you be claimed as a dependent on someone else’s 2015 tax return, or are you someone else’s qualifying child?
   d. On your federal return are you filing form 2555, or 2555EZ?
   e. Is your investment income more than $3400? (Investment income includes: taxable interest, tax-exempt interest, ordinary dividends and capital gains more than $0)
   f. Did you file form 4797 with your federal return?
   g. Did you file Schedule E with your federal return?
   h. Did you have income from the rental of personal property not used in trade or business on your federal return?
   i. Did you elect to report child’s interest and dividends on your federal return?
   j. Are you a qualifying child of another person for the Earned Income Credit?
4. Were you or your spouse a nonresident alien for any part of 2015? If NO, continue. If YES, see the special rule.
   Special Rule for nonresident Aliens. If you are not married, and were a non-resident alien for any part of the year, STOP; you do not qualify for the EITC. If you were married, and both spouses were nonresident aliens for any part of the tax year, STOP; you do not qualify for the EITC. If only one spouse was a nonresident alien for any part of the year, you cannot claim the EITC unless your federal filing status is married filing jointly.

5. If you had income or loss from a passive activity, see IRS Pub. 596 to see if you can claim the EITC.
