

Core Training: Satisfaction

Value-Based Decision Making

Facilitator's Guide

Online Resources

- This article covers effective communication in the decision making process.
http://www.eperc.mcw.edu/fastFact/ff_193.htm
- This site has information on home care and decision making.
<http://www.allenshea.com/carepolicy.html>
- This website provides a very broad scope of information, slightly medical model, but can be useful for values based information.
http://www.unmcoc.org/powerpoint/medical_futility.ppt
- This is a home care article with information on decision making that can be used for developing a related scenario.
<http://www.allenshea.com/carepolicy.html>
- For additional information on the DDA ISP process please refer to the ISP policy and power point. This covers information about the ISP sections, team involvement, core values and the providers' responsibilities

Hitting the Books

- This is a manual about person-centered planning. Please refer to Chapter 5 for relevant information on documentation. It specifically discusses creating person-centered notes <http://rtc.umn.edu/docs/pcpmanual1.pdf>
- There is supported information about Substitute Decision Making in this particular article.
<http://pubs.ext.vt.edu/350/350-253/350-253.html>