Applicant Information

| Last Name           | First Name | Middle Name |          |
|---------------------|------------|-------------|----------|
| Home Street Address | City       | State       | ZIP Code |

District of Columbia law requires you to demonstrate either that: (1) you have good reason to fear injury to yourself or your property; or (2) you have another proper reason for carrying a concealed pistol.

Demonstration of Good Reason to Fear Injury to Person or Property

To demonstrate a good reason to fear injury to yourself, you must:

- Show a special need for self-protection distinguishable from the general community, as supported by evidence of specific threats or previous attacks which demonstrate a special danger to your life.
- Allege serious threats of death or serious bodily harm, any attacks on yourself, or any theft of property from your person.
- Allege that the threats are of a nature that the legal possession of a pistol is necessary as a reasonable precaution against the apprehended danger.
- Provide all evidence of contemporaneous reports to the police of such threats or attacks, and disclose whether or not you made a sworn complaint to the police or the courts of the District of Columbia concerning any threat or attack.

Pursuant to District of Columbia law, the fact that you live or work in a high crime area shall not by itself establish a good reason to fear injury to yourself or your property for the issuance of a concealed carry license.

You can also include any supporting statements from third parties, but the statements must be made under oath and before a notary.

Demonstration of Other Proper Reason for a Concealed Carry License

This may include: (1) employment of a type that requires the handling of large amounts of cash or other highly valuable objects that must be transported on your person; or (2) the need for you to provide protection of a family member who is physically or mentally incapacitated to a point where that family member cannot act in defense of himself or herself, or his or her property. You can include any documents (such as police reports or court documents) and/or personal statements to demonstrate that you have a proper reason to be issued a Concealed Carry License.

You may provide a separate document with your personal statement or you may use the reverse side of this document. If you use the reverse side of this document to have a third party provide their statement, their statement must be made under oath, before a notary, and signed by the notary, including the notary's seal.
