

Sharing information with police is easy.

If you have a tip that can help prevent or solve a crime, don't stay silent. Know someone who has a gun? Heard about a beef that may turn violent? Were you a witness or know who has committed a crime?

Help put an end to violence in our city by telling police what you know. The call or text message is free and you can remain anonymous. Cash rewards are offered for certain cases (see reverse for details).
